

ASME Mentorship Programme

in association with Doctors Training
Online Zoom Interactive Workshops

Thursday 4th March (am) & Monday 29th March (am) 2021

By the end of the programme, you will be able to:

- Describe and appreciate the role and importance of mentoring in medical education
- Understand contracting and how to manage the mentee-mentor relationship
- Use models and tools to ensure you use an effective approach in your mentoring relationship and with other professionals.
- Develop enhanced skills including active listening, supportive and challenging questioning techniques, reframing and developmental feedback in the context of a mentorship relationship.
- Recognise when to tell, advise, empower, support, challenge or coach.

Facilitator:
Sarah Johnson

Organisational Development and Leadership specialist.

Sarah works across the NHS in her OD capacity, also undertaking individual and team coaching.

Sarah believes that having the right conversations in the right way creates a culture of growth, empowerment and engagement.

Sarah is qualified to masters level (ILM Level 7 Certificate for Executive and Senior Level Coaches and Mentors) and is the programme lead for delivery of this qualification for others.
